ANTIQUITY IN EGYPT.

They did not die simply in the Spirit and era. We have had nothing in later times to excel in profusion and splendor than was given in the third year of his reign by Amasis, King of all his subjects from Ethiopia to the Indus, in his capital of Susa, to the most illustrious and the meanness of the Medes and Persians. We read in the book of Esther how the six months' fete wound up with a ball given in the royal gardens, to which the grand and great among the citizens were invited. The description preserves the magnificence of the juniper. The pavilions were suspended by rings of ivory attached to marble columns. The guests reclined on couches of ivory and silver, which stood on pavements of Jasper, porphyry and alabaster, inlaid with exquisite paintings. They were set out of golden cups, the maws of which were suspended continually, and the cups, of the rarest quality, flowed from fountains. Amasis entered in a manner worthy of a mighty monarch, but by all accounts the monarch and his hospitality were completely eclipsed by Solomon in all his glory. No king since or before was more profuse than that reigned under the wise King. His personal means were almost as considerable as Amasis. Candide found him to be in El Dorado. The daily consumption of food at Solomon's table was thirty measures of fine flour, six measures of meal, ten fat oxen, ten fat sheep, 100 sheep, beside harts, roebucks, fallow-deer, and fatted fowl. The usual menu was, of course, in keeping with the noble commissariat, which was superintended by twelve officers, each of whom discharged the duties of provost or caterer for the household during one month of the year.

Breathe Through the Nose.

Indeed whether the roundabout course of the air through the narrow nostrils is somewhat before it strikes the larynx (the vocal box), whose surpassing delicacy of construction renders it peculiarly liable to harm. Many a case of inflamed tonsils, larynx, or lungs, is due to breathing through the mouth and not through the nose.

The best medical authorities now assure us that the serious harm which so often results from nasal catarrh is caused, not by any "dropping" of disengaged mucus from the head, but by the simple fact that, the nasal passages being swollen and partially closed, the person breathes only through the mouth.

Wherever the air is loaded with infection—in sick-rooms; in the open air, during the prevalence of epidemics; in malarial districts, especially at night, when the system is especially liable to be infected; in the cars and all crowded gatherings, for we never know when there are infected parties present—the rule should be observed, to breathe through the nose. Persons who do are less likely to take disease. The morbid particles are quite likely to lodge on the moist sides of the nasal passages, and thence to be washed out.

When the air is loaded with dust—when sweeping rooms, beating carpets, sitting ashes, shoveling coal, facing clouds of dust in the streets, filing iron and other metals as a business, and working in various kinds of mills—it is exceedingly important that the rule be observed.

One should train himself to sleep with a closed mouth. For this purpose, he should avoid lying on his back, in which posture the mouth is much more likely to open than in any other position of the body. The danger is increased by the mouth becoming dry, and thus less able to arrest the particles of dust or floating miasms.—Youth's Companion.

FOOT-KISSING.

In Theophile Gautier's "Constantinople of To-day" there is an account of the ceremony of kissing the Sultan's toe in honor which is reserved for the Viceroy, Ministers and certain privileged Pashas. This act of homage is performed with the utmost solemnity, and is marked by every sign of respect worthy of so important an occasion. Referring to the custom of kissing the Pope's toe, Matthew, of Westminster, thus explains its origin: Formerly it was usual to kiss the hand of his Holiness, but toward the close of the eighth century a certain woman, when making a visit to the Pope, not only kissed his hand, but committed the terrible offence of squeezing it. The Pope, seeing the danger to which he was thus exposed, cut off his hand, and by this means escaped the contamination to which he had been rendered liable. Since that time the precaution has been taken of kissing the Pope's toe instead of his hand; and, lest any one should doubt the accuracy of this account, the historian argues that the hand which had been cut off 500 or 600 years before still existed at Rome—a standing miracle since it was preserved in its original state, free from corruption.

When the ceremony of kissing the Pope's toe takes place, he wears on the occasion a slipper with a cross. We are to here that kissing the foot is a very ancient and Oriental sign of respect, and is said to have been introduced into the West by the latter Roman Emperors, whose court ceremonies were mixed with so many servile customs.—Belgravian.

Stopped the Proceedings.
"I came in to tell you that you might as well stop them proceedings in chancery for a bill of divorce," said a soft-voiced thing about 27 years old, as she came into a Laramie lawyer's office.

"Decided to live together as man and wife again, hay?"
"No, not that. Not that. You see Obadiah strolled away to Leadville two years ago, and kind of give me and the kids the grand shake. Since then I've been rustling in my gentle, unobtrusive manner to make a stake. I've wrote to him occasionally whenever I had leisure, and kind of rodded him up for not chipping in with his assessment, but he never represented.

"That kind of irritated me, and I asked you last week to get me a divorce. If I paid all the assessments myself I thought 'twould be no more than square to get all the dividends. But this morning I got news from Leadville that has changed my notion a little about the divorce."

"Sent you some money, did he?"
"No, not that. He didn't even write to me, but I got a paper with a big blue mark around a piece in it, which conveys the intelligence that Obadiah was hung there on the 10th by request.

"It seems that he got to jumping lots and stealing horses between means, and people got down on him. Then he salted a claim over on Buelskin, and sold it for $10,000 to a tender-foot from way down East.

"He made several flowery breaks like that, and the popular feeling seemed more or less turned against him. Several weeks ago Obadiah stole a pair of big mules from a man who belonged in Kokomo, and next night went back to get a neckyoke and monkey-wrench that belonged to the wagon, and happened to run into a passle of vigilantes lookin' for a job. They took Obadiah over to a tall, limber tree, and let him stand on a bronco pony plug under the lowest limb while they tied clothesline around his windpipe.

"Obadiah told them that he wasn't much of a bare-back rider, and he didn't know whether he could do the trick or not. They slid the clothesline over the limb and hit the bronco a lick with a quirt.

"The bronco was a high-plug, and had been raised in luxury, so he got mad when they hit him and he lit out some. That left Obadiah in a good deal of suspense. He wiggled around a little and got embarrassed, and didn't seem to know what to do with his hands for a while. Then he became more calm and composed in his manner, and the crowd made a present of him to the coroner. I wrote to the authorities to send me his check book and a statement of Obadiah's bank account, and whatever you're out on this divorce hooraw will be all right, understand. I'd rather let the Almighty and the vigilantes fix up my law business than to die of old age waiting for chancery, anyhow. That's the kind of grub-stricken relic I am."

SATURDAY, JULY 7, 1883.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Local Legislature was prorogued to-day at four o'clock.

The Buffalo Courier says that Goldwin Smith writes on the Irish question as if he had been kicked down stairs by an Irishman at some time or other, and was bound to get what satisfaction he could out of making faces at the whole race.

The Regina Leader, after having published a letter from Fort Walsh, making certain reflections on Colonel Irving, of the N. W. M. P., in reference to a horse sale, takes it back. This is making the amende honorable, always supposing that the editor of the Leader and the writer of the Fort Walsh letter are not one and the same person.

The Ottawa Free Press remarks: Now that Mr. Norquay has carried his resolution in reference to an inter-provincial convention, what is he going to do about it? Hon. Mr. Norquay, we understand upon good authority, is going to have the convention called at once, and we believe it is his intention to recommend Winnipeg as the place where the convention is to meet.

The Manitoba Free Press denies that the election of Mr. Douglas for the electoral division of Emerson was a Conservative triumph. When the defeated candidate and the successful candidate both admit that it was a Conservative victory, the proof is sufficient. A majority of the electors of that electoral division are Conservatives, and when they agree upon their man they intend to elect him, as was the case in the late election in Emerson.

The Ottawa correspondent of the Halifax Herald says that Louis Riel has come to this province to lead the Provincial Rights party. Mr. Riel will have some difficulty in this, first because he has not come hither for any such purpose, and secondly because there is no Provincial Rights party, and thirdly because M. Riel could not lead such a party if he would. All of which we respectfully submit.

It will be seen, from a perusal of our legislative summary, published in this issue, that Hon. Mr. Norquay stated in the House, in reference to the Court House and Jail contract, that the party to whom the contract had been awarded had failed to put the required security. The Sun, which is always pecking at Brandon's member, should make a note of what

Mr. Woodworth said when the Premier made the above explanation. Mr. Woodworth said "he hoped the Government would be very careful in the matter, and give the contract to the best man qualified to do the work to the fullest satisfaction of the people of Brandon." The Sun, of course, stupidly but maliciously maintains that there has been some underhand work in the matter of the contract.

The MAIL does not hesitate to say that those who have put up houses in Brandon, expecting to receive exorbitant rents, will be doomed to disappointment. There is nothing that will do a city more injury than excessive rentals. When these rentals are demanded by those who claim to be town proprietors, and who really are such, the indictment is aggravated. Rents are still too high here, and they must come down to a basis of solid progress. There is an end to boom and inflation, and those property owners who are asking high rents will find to their cost that they are standing very much in their own light, in addition to injuring the city abroad, and if the local press is delicate about exposing the imposition, correspondents of outside papers will ventilate the subject to the fullest extent abroad. Landlords will find it profitable, we are certain, to be more modest in their demands for rentals.

WHO WON?

Our readers may find amusement in solving the following puzzle:

A crocodile stole a baby, "in the day when animals could talk," and was about to make a dinner of it. The poor mother begged pitifully for her child. "Tell me one truth," said the crocodile, "and you shall have back your baby again."

The mother thought it over and at last said: "You will not give my child back."

"Is that the truth you mean to tell?" asked the crocodile.

"Yes," replied the mother.

"Then by our agreement I keep him," added the crocodile; "for if you told the truth I am not going to give him back, and, if it is a falsehood, then I have also won."

Said she: "No, you are wrong. If I told the truth, you are bound by your promise; and if a falsehood, it is not a falsehood until after you have given me my child."

Now the question is who won?

To Whom it May Concern.

During the thunderstorm in August, 1882, the County of Middlesex, Ont., alone suffered to the extent of from $50,000 to $50,000 in the destruction of dwellings, barns and out-buildings. Not one of the structures consumed was furnished with rods from the Globe Lightning Rod Company of London, although there are thousands and thousands of feet of our rods erected upon the farm houses and barns in Middlesex Co., and over 10,000 being erected within the city limits alone during the past two years, the statements of a few were to the contrary notwithstanding. The Globe Company, in order to show their confidence in the goods manufactured and sold by them, are prepared to place the sum of $500,000 in the hands of His Worship the Mayor (or any other responsible citizen in London,) against a similar amount of deposited by any person or persons who can prove, that a building provided with suitable rods from the Globe Company has been struck during either of the recent thunderstorms which have visited Western Ontario. The money to be divided between the different charitable institutions in Brandon. Orders by mail promptly attended to.

THE WILD BIRD'S SONG.

What is it that the wild bird says?
Come listen to his song:
"Sweet, love is of the summer time
And summer is not long."

"The blossom fades upon the bough
Before the month of June,
And when at last the rose comes
She tarries but a moon."

"Come while the earth is glad and green,
We'll build our nest together;
For love is of the summer time
And cannot bide foul weather."

"Sweetheart! listen, listen well,
Unto the wild bird's song:
"Sweet, love is of the summer time
And summer is not long."

The May is white upon the hedge,
Whr should we longer tarry?
When hedge-rows bloom and wild birds nest,
Then is the time to marry.

To His Excellency the Governor-General.

The following address, framed by a special committee appointed for the purpose has been forwarded to Ottawa. We, her majesty's faithful and loyal subjects, of the Legislative Assembly of Manitoba, in session assembled, beg respectfully to approach your excellency to express our warm appreciation of the service your excellency has rendered Canada during the time your excellency has administered the affairs of the Dominion. We beg also to record our appreciation of the great service rendered by your excellency to the province of Manitoba by the visit with which you honored us, and by the interest you have taken in the dissemination of information regarding the resources of this portion of Canada, the result of which we already perceive in the increased attention paid to Canada in Great Britain, and a consequent large augmentation of immigration. We rejoice to think that in your excellency the province of Manitoba will have a warm and devoted friend who will neglect no opportunity of placing before the British public her claims as a suitable place for settlement. In bidding your excellency farewell and expressing best wishes for the long life and happiness of yourself and H. E. H. the Princess Louise we beg of you to carry to her most gracious majesty the Queen an expression of our devoted loyalty and respect.

CONFEDERATE STATES OF AMERICA,
SUBSISTENCE DEPARTMENT,
RICHMOND, VA., Sept. 26, 1861.

The following prices, being the average of late schedules established by Commissioners for States east of the Mississippi river, with cost of transportation included, will be charged for subsistence stores sold to officers under the act of Feb. 17, 1861, and amendments, in Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Florida, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi and East Louisiana, until further orders: Bacon, $2.50 per pound; fresh beef, 70 cents per pound; flour $10 per barrel; corn meal, $4.50 per bushel 40 pounds; rice, 30 cents per pound; peas, $6.50 per bushel of 60 pounds; sugar, 83 per pound; coffee, 40 per pound; soap, $1 per pound; candles, $3.25 per pound; vinegar, $2.50 per gallon; molasses, $10 per gallon; salt, 30 cents per pound.—Columbus (S. C.) Register.

Mr. J. H. Dolmacy, of the firm of J. H. WINNIPEG, July 4.

EVENING SESSION.

THAT MORRIS BY LAW AGAIN.

Mr. Tennant gave notice that on Thursday evening he will move that the motion passed to-day "That Bill No. 30, an act to amend and confirm and amend the charter incorporating the town of Morris, to legalize certain by-laws and incorporate the town of Morris" be rescinded on the following grounds: 1. That several members who had voted for the six months past had no notice that this question would again come up. 2d. That the order was not printed amongst the order of the day, but was added to the same afterwards in ink.

TAXATION OF RAILWAYS.

On motion of Hon. Mr. Norquay the bill respecting the taxation of railways and suits against them was read a third time and passed.

BILL PASSED.

The following bills were considered in committee of the whole and passed, on suspension of the rules:—

Hon. Mr. Norquay's bill to incorporate the two towns of Emerson and West Lynne into one municipal corporation under the name of the city of Emerson.—Mr. Jackson in the chair.

Mr. Conklin's bill to incorporate the Winnipeg water power company.—Mr. Woodworth in the chair.

Mr. Leacock's bill to incorporate the Gladstone, Lake Dauphin and Duck Mountain Railway company.—Mr. Gigot in the chair.

Hon. Mr. Norquay's bill to provide for the better auditing of the public accounts.—Mr. Cyr in the chair.

Hon. Attorney-General Sutherland's bill to amend the county courts act.—Mr. Davidson in the chair.

Hon. Mr. Norquay's bill to amend an act passed this session entitled to authorize corporations and other institutions incorporated out of the province to transact business therein.—Mr. Douglas in the chair.

Hon. Mr. Norquay's bill respecting executions and attachments.—Mr. Young in the chair.

Hon. Attorney-General Sutherland's bill respecting the investment of monies paid into the court of Queen's Bench (Equity side) and the security thereof.—Mr. Bell in the chair.

Hon. Mr. Norquay's bill respecting the acquisition and sale of the public lands of the Province.—Mr. Winram in the chair.

Mr. Leacock's bill to incorporate the Brandon, Birtle and Swan River Valley Railway.—Mr. Woodworth in the chair.

SECOND READINGS.

The following bills were read a second time and referred to:—

Hon. Attorney-General's bill respecting estoppels in certain cases.

Hon. Mr. Norquay's bill respecting liquor license fees.

Hon. Mr. Norquay's bill to amend the Manitoba cemetery incorporating act.

HOMESTEADS ACT.

Mr. Woolworth having obtained the suspension of the rules, (seconded by Mr. Douglas) moved the introduction and first reading of the bill to amend Cap. 37 of the Consolidated Statutes. The hon. member explained that the object of the bill was to allow homesteads exemption for one cow two oxen, two horses or mules, four sheep, two pigs, twelve fowls and food for the same for 30 days. The bill passed its first and second readings and was referred at the suggestion of the Attorney General, to the Committee on Law Amendments.

PROMISSORY NOTES &c.

Mr. Douglas' bill respecting promissory notes and bill of exchange was withdrawn.

SUPPLY.

The House again went into Committee of the Whole on Supply.

On the item of Court House and Jail Westman District, Mr. Woodworth said that to-day the debentures of the city of Brandon for this part would realize, if sold about $45,000 and there was a distinct understanding that the works should be pushed through for 30 days. The bill passed its first and second readings and was referred at the suggestion of the Attorney General, to the Committee on Law Amendments.

Hon. Mr. Norquay and Hon. Mr. Brown explained that although the sum of $40,000 was placed in the estimates it was with the understanding that if the Government sold the debentures the amount realized would be fully accounted for. The Government were doing what they could to push the works. It was their intention that no time should be lost. The lowest tender had been accepted at the outset, but the necessary security not being forthcoming, the contract had not yet been let. Government, however, would do their best to let it promptly and push the work to completion.

Mr. Woodworth hoped that the Government would be very careful in this matter, and give the contract to the man best qualified to do the work to the full satisfaction of the people of Brandon.

Item passed, and remaining items in the estimates, some of them causing much discussion.

The Committee rose and reported. Report adopted. The Supply Bill was then passed through all its stages.

At 3 o'clock a.m. the House adjourned till 3 p.m. same day.

Winnipeg July 5th.

The Speaker took the chair at half-past three p.m.

REPORTS.

The Attorney-General presented the 17th report of the Private Bills Committee and several other reports, which were adopted.

BORDERS LAND REGISTRATION SYSTEM.

Mr. Conklin asked the Government whether it is their intention to submit a bill at this session of the Legislature, introducing the Territories Land Registration system.

Hon. Mr. Norquay replied that this matter had been represented to the Government by a large and influential body of citizens, to whom the reply had been made that the Government would take into consideration.

Hon. Attorney-General Sutherland's bill to amend the County Courts Act was read a third time and passed.

LAND REGISTRATION.

Hon. Attorney-General Sutherland's bill to amend the Land Registration Act was considered in Committee of the Whole, Mr. Tyr in the chair.

A debate arose on clause 18 as to registration enclosures.

The bill was finally passed.

The House then went into Committee of the Whole on Mr. Le Compte's bill to amend clause 14, cap. 18, consolidated statutes, Mr. Davidson in the chair. Bill passed all its stages.

ST. BONIFACE.

Hon. Mr. Lariviere's bill relating to the incorporation of the municipality and the town of St. Boniface was considered in Committee of the Whole, Mr. Allan in the chair. Bill passed all its stages.

ENCOURAGEMENT TO RAILWAYS.

Hon. Mr. Norquay moved the second reading of the bill to encourage the building of railways in Manitoba.

After discussion the bill was read a second time.

On motion of Mr. Woodworth the House went into Committee of the Whole on the bill relating to the division of the Province in to counties and municipalities and to provide for the government of the same.

This is the most important bill of the session. Mr. Woodworth was called to the chair.

At six o'clock the Committee rose and adjourned, and obtained leave to sit again.

The House adjourned till 7:30 p.m.

A Lock of Hair.

Few things in this weary world are so delightful as keep-sakes. Nor do they ever, to the heart, at least, nor to our eye, lose their tender, their powerful charm. How slight, how small, how tiny a memorial saves a beloved one from oblivion, worn on the finger or close to the heart, especially if they be dead. No thought is so insupportable as that of entire, total, blank forgetfulness; when the creature that once laughed and sang, and wept to us, close to our side, or in our very arms, is as if her smile, her voice, her tears, her kisses had never been. She and them all swallowed up in the dark nothingness of the dust.

Of all keep-sakes, memorials, reliques, most dearly, most devoutly do we love a little lock of hair. And, oh, when the head it beautified has long mouldered in the dust, how spiritual seems the undying glossiness of the sole remaining ringlet! All else gone to nothing, save and except that soft, smooth, burnished and glorious fragment of the apparel that once hung over an angel's brow. Ay, a lock of hair is far better than any picture; it is a part of the beloved object herself; it belonged to the tresses that often, long, long ago, may have all been suddenly disheveled, like a shower of sunbeams, over your beaving breast. But how solemn thoughtsadden the beauty once so bright, so resplendent.
